QUEST ~ rediscover yourself in India

The Historical Mandavgarh

With rich history and supreme architectural value, the city of Mandu or Mandavgarh stands out as a celebrated tourist spot in Madhya Pradesh, India. Located in the Malwa region in the western part of the state, Mandu is popular for its intriguing and pastel coloured monuments that once belonged to the invading Mughal and Afghan forces. As you visit Mandu and experience the brilliance of the Islamic architectures you will also come across the love story of poet prince Baz Bahadur and his lovely spouse Rani Roopmati.

As added attractions do not miss out on amazing structures of Jahaz Mahal, Hindola Mahal, Taveli Mahal, Hoshang Shah's Tomb, Jain Temple, Neel Kanth Palace, Darya Khans Tomb, Baz Bahadur's Palace, Roopmati's Pavilion and many more that were once built in the Mandu's golden age of 14th Century. A city to experience for sure.

monuments and put signages in foreign languages

The Tourism Ministry of India has moved up to another level in order to ensure more and more foreign tourists visit the country. The Ministry has already started illuminating ASI monuments and keeping them open at night. This will surely enhance the visitors' experience even if they want to visit the architectures during late evenings. Moreover signages in foreign languages viz. Mandarin and Sinhala are already installed in Delhi, Uttar Pradesh and Madhya Pradesh. The Ministry is also planning to install more signages in Japanese and Korean in various states of India.

This would be a big appeal to the visiting tourists as they can now take a stroll around the attractive spots in the evenings and even route themselves to other sites.

THE HAMPI FESTIVAL

Starting from 25th February to 27th February 2020, this 3 day event is one of the biggest festival of Karnataka and is also termed as the 'Majestic Vijaynagar Carnival' which revives the glory of Vijaynagar Kingdom of medieval times. The gala event is full of variety of performances of dance, music, drama, procession, puppet shows and many more where the artists showcase their talents and grandeur of Vijayanagar. Moreover one can also get a chance to participate in few of the adventure sports like rock climbing, water sports and rural sports.

Apart from the celebrations the visitors also get to experience colourful crackers and fireworks in the Hampi sky combined by Light & Sound show and a famous parade of horses and elephants elegantly decorated by ornaments. This entire extravaganza is organised and conducted by the State Government of Karnataka. Although there is no admission fee of the event but we would recommend to make pre-bookings of travel, accommodations and transport as Hampi is visited by huge number of tourists.
